SYNOPSIS

On Sunday, 06-24-07, at approximately 1745 hours, I, Officer Pete Hernandez^{J-2}, contacted Mr. Dan Foley at 4501 N. Main. Mr. Foley was placed under arrest for the following charge(s): 1) Disorderly Conduct, 2) Obstructing an Officer, 3) Resisting Arrest, with each charge holding a $300.00 Cash or Surety Bond.

INVESTIGATION

During a basketball game Mr. Foley became upset and charged onto the basketball court. Mr. Foley was cursing loudly and could be heard by spectators. Officer Zavala physically attempted to stop Mr. Foley who bypassed him. I and Officer Carrasco then assisted Officer Zavala. I gave orders to Mr. Foley to back up. Mr. Foley continued to charge forward in an aggressive manner and continued to curse. I then grabbed the left arm and Officer Carrasco the right arm of Mr. Foley and attempted to keep him away from the center of the court. Mr. Foley continued forward, cursing. Mr. Foley was placed on the ground on his back with arms up. Mr. Foley continued to curse and attempted to get up. I placed my forearm on the upper part of Mr. Foley's chest, and gave orders for him to stop. Mr. Foley continued his behavior. He was then turned over on to his stomach and had to forcibly be placed into handcuffs. Mr. Foley was upset because his son was involved in a fight during the basketball game. Mr. Foley was then escorted to the mall security office. He became calm asking for officer's names, stating he was going to have our jobs. Mr. Foley used too many obscenities to be remembered. The one that stands out is, "He hit my fucking kid!" Mr. Foley yelled the statement several times. As Mr. Foley was being escorted numerous spectators began to cheer. I later learned from an unknown spectator that Mr. Foley had been yelling at players and officials during previous games. Several spectators also yelled Mr. Foley was a state senator and representative.
