

same." Later, while in my office with Melinda Gamboa, Marie's supervisor, Judge Garza once again stated, "These clerks can complain about me; I am going to do the same."

11. Due to Judge Garza's erratic behavior and the increasing difficulties in working with him, five of the clerks in the Magistrate Court have requested that they not be assigned to work with him (only two, however, have been allowed to not work with him).

Further affiant sayeth naught.
