

Allen W. McCulloch

allen.w.mcculloch@gmail.com

The Holiday and Christmas Festivities are here!

Go Enjoy!

Our Republican values are alive and well!

Today, I am asking for your support in becoming the next Chairman of the Republican Party of New Mexico.

We are at a cross-road of our Republican future. We can cease on the opportunity to come together and re-build a stronger more responsive party or sink further into irrelevancy. “Business as usual”, will not work! We must begin by building a fundamentally sound organization, from the ground up.

As your next chairman, I am committed to ensuring our county chairs, activist’s and legislators have a seat at the New Mexico Republican table. I believe we first have to be organized as a party to defend our values in Santa Fe. In preparation for the legislative session, I am proposing that county chairs develop legislative caucuses that will be prepared to respond to upcoming legislation. These county caucuses will be part of the state Republican “Legislative Affairs Committee”. Today is the time to start!

Second, we must start now on the development of our ground game in preparation for the 2010 midterm election. One of the most pressing issues that will face our party will be legislative re-districting in 2011 – We must not allow a Democrat majority to exist in two years. The old saying that “all politics are local” is my commitment. We must Stop the “Progressive Democrat” organizations from making anymore gains in Santa Fe.

New Mexico needs your leadership!

Together, we can focus on building a strong party by ensuring every county has the tools they need to build strong efforts in,

- Voter Registration
- Strong ward / precinct organizations
- Candidate recruitment and training
- Meaningful communication from the state GOP

I have travelled to every corner of the state and have developed many strong working relationships. I have been given a commitment by our outgoing members of congress that they will help in the rebuilding of our party. I am asking for your support in electing me the next Chairman of the Republican Party of New Mexico.

United we win!

Allen McCulloch

P.O. Box 5102
Farmington, NM 87499
505.326.3570