

3. That the defendant and the prosecutor have entered into a plea agreement and that the defendant understands and consents to its terms.
4. That the plea is voluntary and not the result of force, threats or promises other than a plea agreement.
5. That under the circumstances, it is reasonable that the defendant plead guilty.
6. That the defendant understands that a conviction may have an effect upon the defendant's immigration or naturalization status.

On the basis of these findings, I conclude that the defendant knowingly, voluntarily and intelligently pleads guilty to the above charges and accepts such plea. These findings shall be made a part of the record in the above-styled case.
